The Association will to the fullest extent permitted by law indemnify any person who is or was an Officer of the Association or a member of the Executive Committee against any and all liability incurred by such person in connection with any claim, action, suit, or proceeding or any threatened claim, action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was an Officer of the Association or an Executive Committee member, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and with respect to any criminal proceeding such person had no reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. Liability and expenses include reasonable attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, costs, and amounts actually paid in settlement. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, will not of itself create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. The foregoing right of indemnification is in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other rights to which any such Officer or Committee member may be entitled under any statute, bylaw, agreement, or otherwise.

SECTION 2: Actions by or in the Right of the Association
In connection with any proceeding brought by or in the right of the Association, the Association may not indemnify any person who is or was an Officer of the Association or an Executive Committee member if such person has been adjudged by a court of law to be liable to the Association, unless the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all of the circumstances of the case such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity.
SECTION 3: Self-Interested Transactions
The Association may not indemnify any person who is or was an Officer of the Association or an Executive Committee member in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to such person in which such person has been adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by such person, unless the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all circumstances of the case such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity.

SECTION 4: Determination of the Propriety of Indemnification
The determination that indemnification is proper must be made by the majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee consisting of the Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding or, if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by the majority vote of a committee, duly designated by the Executive Officers, consisting of at least two Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding. If there are not two Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding, the full Executive Committee must select special legal counsel to determine whether indemnification is proper.

SECTION 5: Evaluation of Expenses
An evaluation as to the reasonableness of expenses must be made by the majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee consisting of Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding or, if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by the majority vote of a committee, duly designated by the Executive Committee, consisting of at least two Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding. If there are not two Executive Committee members who were not parties to the proceeding, the full Executive Committee, who were not parties to the proceeding, will evaluate the reasonableness of expenses.

SECTION 6: Notice to the Attorney General
An Officer of the Association or Executive Committee member may not be indemnified by the Association until 20 days after the effective date of written notice to the Wyoming Attorney General of the proposed indemnification.

SECTION 7: Advance of Expenses
Expenses incurred with respect to any claim, action, suit, or other proceeding of the character described in this article may be advanced by the Association prior to the final disposition of such proceeding if (a) Officer of the Association or Executive Committee member provides written affirmation to the Association of such person’s good faith belief that such person satisfies the criteria for indemnification, and (b) the Officer or Executive Committee member gives the Association a written undertaking to repay the advance amount if it is ultimately determined that the Officer or Executive Committee is not entitled to indemnification under this article. The undertaking will be a general obligation of the Officer or Executive Committee member, but need not be secured and may be accepted by the Executive Committee without reference to the Officer’s or Executive Committee member’s financial ability to make repayment.

If two-thirds (2/3) of the members returning ballots within the succeeding thirty days vote affirmatively, the amendment shall be adopted.
